Local School Board Firm In Education 'Strike'

TUITION TO BERKELEY IS VOTED DOWN

Feeling that adequate facilities are provided in the junior high schools of Richmond for the children of residents in the Kensington Park district, members of the Richmond school board yesterday afternoon unanimously decided not to pay tuition to Berkeley schools for the pupils.

This is the latest development in the "strike" called by a number of residents in Kensington Park who desire to send their children to Berkeley schools instead of Richmond, of which district it is a part.

Superintendent of Schools Walter T. Helms presented the matter to the members of the school board, calling attention to the present situation which is preventing the children from attending either school.

Berkeley schools will not accept the pupils unless tuition is paid for them since they are not residents of the Berkeley district.

The attitude of the Kensington Park residents was expressed yesterday afternoon by Frank Kleeberger, father of one of the pupils concerned.

"Our associations are with Berkeley people, we bank in Berkeley and trade in Berkeley," said Kleeberger, "and we want our children to associate with Berkeley children with whom they will later come in contact in the business.

Kenneth MacGregor, 28, Glendale, was taken to the county jail last night to await hearing on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon as the outgrowth of a fight with Joe de Martini, 55, proprietor of an El Cerrito fruit stand yesterday. Martini sustained several wounds when he attempted to block an afflited holdup of his place of business by MacGregor.

Before Judge A. H. MacKinnon, sitting for Justice Alstrom in the local court, MacGregor's bail was set at $3000.

MacGregor was first charged with robbery, but this was reduced to assault with a deadly weapon.

The attack took place shortly before 8 o'clock yesterday morning when MacGregor, according to de Martini, drove up and asked to purchase some pears. An argument over the weight of the fruit ensued and then, de Martini said, MacGregor seized a hammer and struck him over the head.

Although bleeding severely from his wounds, de Martini grappled with his assailant, who after a struggle, broke away and fled in his machine. De Martini hurled a barrage of fruit after the car and succeeded in breaking the glass in the rear of the machine, marking it.

A though bleeding severely from his wounds, de Martini grappled with his assailant, who after a struggle, broke away and fled in his machine. De Martini hurled a barrage of fruit after the car and succeeded in breaking the glass in the rear of the machine, marking it.

A. C. Wagner, real estate operator across the street, was attacked by the melee and furnished police with the license number of the attacker's car.

De Martini's son, Joe, summoned Motorcycle Officer Floyd Gilbert, and the pair, in de Martini's machine, gave chase. Raoul Ferrari, 1803 Virginia street, Richmond, pursued the attacker in another machine.

Gilbert and young de Martini, traveling at 60 miles an hour, finally caught up with MacGregor in Franklin canyon. He surrendered without a struggle.

Two Berkeley youths, nabbed in connection with an assault on two girls, were brought to the El Cerrito jail last night by Constable George Conlon, only to gain their liberty when parents of the girls refused to prosecute.

The two men are Cecil Sanford, 23, and Kenneth Brown.

Sanford was identified by a man picked up at the scene of the alleged assault during an investigation by Constable Conlon, Officer Peralta and Police Commissioner Beck. The man was taken to the Berkeley police station.

When Sanford, who had been lodged in jail after an alleged drunken brawl with Brown, was released the next day he claimed the hat and officers found their search for suspects ended.

The two victims of alleged attack were picked up near the Berkeley Country club. The young man talked to them and attempted to drag them into a machine. One of the girls broke away and ran to a new house where a carpenter was at work. She enlisted his aid and he went back with her. The youths fled one dropping his hat. The girl obtained the license number of the car and turned it over to the police when they reported the incident at the police station.

Wednesday noon, two students of Frick school, Oakland, 14 and 15 years of age, were given a ride by two young men to a deserted spot near the head of Chabot road. The girls managed to escape and returned home late in the evening with their clothes torn and their faces and hands scratched from their battle with the men.

The police believe the two attempted attacks are connected.

Sanford, while admitting ownership of the hat, steadfastly protested his innocence of the attack charges.

While the mayor was on the ground, Shevlin, it is alleged, bit the mayor severely on the right ear. The two combatants were separated by councilmen and members of the construction company, and the mayor given medical treatment.

Dr. H. H. Shires, rector of Christ church, Alameda, presented interesting word pictures of Damascus one of the oldest existing cities, to the members of the Richmond Rotary club in the Hotel Carquinez yesterday. Dr. Shires is a boyhood friend of Dr. H. I. Obersholtzer who was chairman of the day and recently returned from a visit to the Holy Land and Syria.

Dr. U. S. Abbott delivered a five-minute talk on his recent 4000-mile trip through the Canadian Rockies. Harman Jatts, Club Mendelssohn dramatic contest winner, read a dramatic selection.

Mrs. Nora D. Holmstad, 50, who attempted to commit suicide following a quarrel with her husband Thursday morning is reported to be out of danger and may quite possibly live. At the Cottage hospital where she was finally taken after she had twice shot her husband, Fred Holmstad, doctors at first believed her condition to be hopeless.

Holmstad, lying in the same hospital with the cheek bones of his face splintered and his thigh mangled with a bullet is also on the road to recovery.

Anderson visited his daughter Thursday night, and when he left for his home, she told him she would visit him yesterday morning. The clock incident caused her to reach him approximately and hour before he expected her arrival.

Mrs. Jungnickel told police her father had been drinking heavily, and several times had threatened suicide.

GIDEONS TO LEAVE ON SACRAMENTO TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. William Gideon and their son, William, of 640 Seventh street left yesterday afternoon for a week-end trip to Sacramento to attend the state fair.

Andy Shevlin, held in the El Cerrito jail on a charge of mayhem, was released by Chief of Police Byrd last night after $300 bond had been posted. Shevlin will have a preliminary hearing before Judge Alstrom here in two weeks.

Charged with mayhem is Lee, a complainant by Mayor Paul Lee of El Cerrito. Andy Shevlin, 50, yesterday had his ball fixed at $3000 when he appeared before Judge A. H. MacKinnon sitting for Judge Alstrom in the local court yesterday.

Shevlin, alleged to be a disgruntled property owner who became aroused at "unnecessary property costs," is said by police to have knocked the El Cerrito mayor to the pavement. Lee sustained a gashed head and a severely bitten ear.

The attack occurred while Mayor Lee, in company with a number of city councilmen and officials of the California Construction company, were inspecting work near Shevlin's house.

It has been before the council a number of times with protests against the work, and when the inspection group appeared on the scene, Shevlin came out of his house and approached them.

After exhorting the mayor and councilmen for what he termed "unnecessary property costs," it is alleged Shevlin struck the mayor in the face. Mayor Lee had his hands in his pockets at the time, it is said. He ducked a second blow and struck back.

Shevlin, who is a much heavier man, then bore him to the ground.

It is alleged, striking the mayor's head on the pavement and inflicting two deep gashes.

While the mayor was on the ground, Shevlin, it is alleged, bit the mayor severely on the right ear.

The two combatants were separated by councilmen and members of the construction company, and the mayor given medical treatment.

EDITORS' JUDGMENT SUBSTANTIATED

The results of the Kansas City convention indicate that the editors of the country, especially those in the smaller communities, know something about the way the political wind is blowing. That this is true is indicated by a review of the two polls taken by the National Republic at Washington as coupled with the result of the Kansas City convention.

Twice during the pre-convention campaign the National Republic conducted polls, sending a query to republican newspapers all over the country, asking for an unbiased report on political sentiment in the various communities. The first poll, taken in November, indicated that Hoover and Smith were the leading candidates. A second poll, taken five months later, in which about 3000 editors voted, showed a big lead for Governor Smith in the democratic party and showed that Hoover was first or second choice among republicans in practically every state in the Union excepting Missouri, where he was behind Lowden and Dawes. Curtis was first choice in Kansas; Watson in Indiana; Borah in Idaho; Lowden in Illinois, Arizona, Iowa, Montana, Minnesota, Oklahoma, North Carolina, North and South Dakota, while Hoover was first in practically all the rest of the states.

Hoover was shown to be the leading candidate in states having 712 delegates in the Kansas City convention, and it is significant that this was about the number of delegates which Mr. Hoover had in the convention before Lowden withdrew and the landslide was on.

The National Republic, in making its estimate, depended entirely on the word of 3000 newspaper editors over the country and the results show that the editors knew exactly what the situation was in their various communities.

When you are in doubt about conditions, political or otherwise, in a certain community, ask the local editor. He knows, because it is his business to know and he generally keeps up with the times.

This early in the campaign it becomes apparent that "How Dry I Am" is apt to be one of the season's most popular songs.

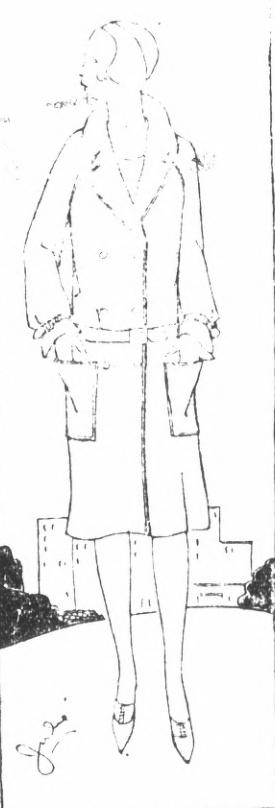

If the republicans and democrats want to make a hit with the radio audiences they will advocate a law limiting the length of seconding speeches to 25 words.

Herbert Hoover and Al Smith are living proofs of the fact that it is still possible for a boy to rise far in the world from humble surroundings, even if there are no log cabins left in which to be born.

AND THE WORST IS YET TO COME

Julie Says--

BEAUTY

If women only weren't so anxious to preserve their wave hair after the visit to the hairdresser to the next, they would have lots healthier and prettier hair.

Most women whose hair is artificially waved would rather die than sit a hair brush vigorously through those expensive curls. As a result, their hair, neglected and sad, loses its life and color and come this day a limp, dead-brown armful.

There are better ways without losing color. If you are beautiful now, you will be able to get those waves and bring a new hair thoroughly every time. It will improve the appearance of your hair much better ways ever could. It is possible to manage the scalp with ease without damaging the hair too much. Put the fingers through the hair and massage the scalp with them.

Don't neglect the health of your hair just to exercise its superficial congections for the moment, and you will pay for it in the long run.

Dear Miss Lowe:
I have at last broken my seal on the Fab. of Glitter my nail and now my problem is how to repair the damage I've done to them. They're stubby and brittle and bumpy looking—DOLLY.

Soak your fingers in warm olive oil two or three times a week to soften your nails. With a finger of the other hand, massage each nail toward the tip (and over) with a nourishing cream. Be sure to push back the cuticle with an orange stick wrapped in cotton, after washing your hands, and soon your nails will be more presentable.

RAINBOWS END

Two attorneys, one decidedly gloom of countenance, sat on the front porch.

"Well, Law's business?" the first asked the dismal one.
"Rotted," the pessimist replied.
"I just chased an ambulance 12 miles and found a lawyer in it."

A STORY BOOK TOUR

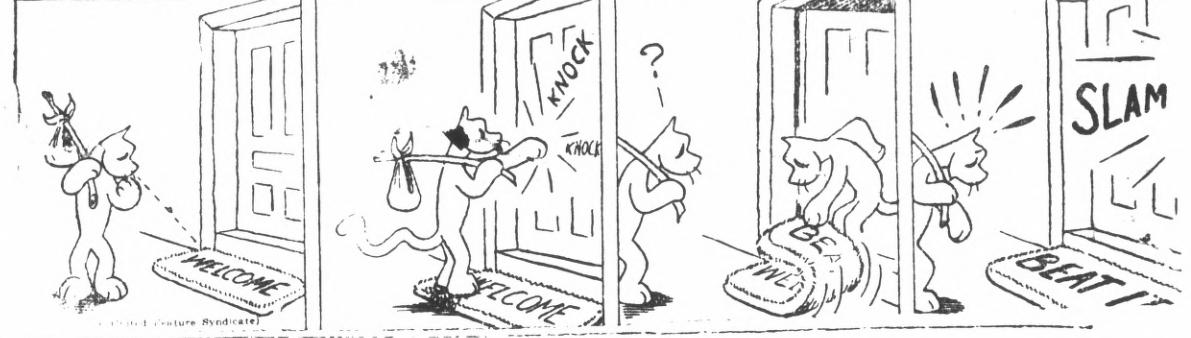

CHILDREN OF BOLIVIA

Robin and Romero live in a pink mud house. Not far off is a blue store. Then there are other mud houses—green, lavender, cream colors. And Robin, Romero, mother and father wear bright colors. Bright skirts, bright shawls, have mother and Robin. Bright ponchos, or blankets, have father and Romero. They seem to be in a rainbow land, these children. Bright colors, clear air, and mountains so tall each seems to be standing on top to look over his nearest neighbor mountain.

Down the streets of La Paz trots father. He carries a trunk on his back. He carries it from the station to a hotel. He is a porter. He trots, trots, up hill, down hill, in this mountain city. And, besides men carrying loads, there are ponies, donkeys, llamas. They all carry loads, back and forth, back and forth.

CHILDREN IN PROGRAM AT LOCAL CHURCH

Twenty-five tiny tots, calling themselves the "Little Lightbearers" were entertained Thursday in the Wesley Methodist church by the Women's Foreign Missionary society. A program, mostly impromptu, was presented by the little guests all of whom are under eight years of age. Songs were conducted by Mrs. M. Hazelton, superintendent of the beginners' class and Mrs. C. G. Lindemann told a child's story.

In the game period Mrs. Tyrell Anderson and Mrs. Hazelton took charge of exciting children's amusements. Refreshments followed, served by Mesdames Pennington, Florence Christopher, W. C. Jenkins, Geo. Jewel and N. Glover. Pink and white were chosen as decorative colors for the tables.

Mrs. Craig had charge of the prearranged program and Mrs. Pennington presided at the party which some sixty parents attended.

School nurse says all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said: "One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functioning of the organs of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping."

Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless, and works so easily. Every woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every druggist has this remarkable substance. Get the genuine.

ALL TALKING FILM TO SHOW AT BERKELEY

Sensational in form and content is Warner Brothers' "Lights of New York," starting at the Cain-theatre, Berkeley, tonight, in which every line spoken by the actors is heard by the audience. There are no written titles in the entire production. The actors are seen and heard at all times.

It is only natural that Warner Brothers, who brought the Vitaphone to the world a scant two years ago, should bring to the screen the first all talking motion picture with spoken dialogue and sound effects throughout.

"Lights of New York," the initial venture in the new medium of complete spoken lines in every scene from beginning to end, marks a new page in history of screen drama. It is in itself as important a step as the invention of the motion picture camera and as wide a departure from the established silent screen as the first cinema was from the legitimate stage.

Concentrated experimentation and investigation has marked the time since the first showing of Vitaphone talking films. Warner Brothers' Hollywood Studios have been constantly active, improving and expanding this innovative device and the result of months of labor is seen and heard in "Lights of New York" in which Helene Costello and Cullen Landis portray the leading roles.

Bryan Foy, Vitaphone director and supervisor for Warners, has been successfully directing short features and subjects. During this time the idea grew in his mind to make a feature length production in which all the characters spoke their lines without a single break or letdown. It was decided through conferences with Jack Warner, chief executive, that an original story by Murray Roth and Hugh Herbert would serve as a forceful vehicle to make the first feature length Vitaphone production a reality. It was a daring undertaking, but they knew it was the next step in the swift development of the film industry. The result is the astounding achievement seen and heard on the screen in "Lights of New York."

The entire cast of prominent players have had both stage and screen experience and in support of Helene Costello and Cullen Landis appear Gladys Brockwell, Mary Carr, Eugene Pallett, Wheeler Oakman, Tom Dugan, Tom McGuire, Guy D'Enery, Walter Pervival, Jerry Delaney and Robert Elliott.

CIRCUS STARTS 3 DAY STAND IN OAKLAND TODAY

How do different animals sleep? According to John O'Connell superintendent of the menagerie of the Sells Floto circus, coming to Oakland tonight, Sunday, and Labor Day no two different species of animal sleep alike. When a monkey gets ready to retire he picks out the highest perch he can find, but, there's a reason. When the only home of the monkey was a forest, he always lived in deadly fear of the lion and a live monkey is a dainty morsel for the king of beasts. Therefore even the circus monkey cannot overcome his natural fear of lions and this accounts for his seeking as high a perch as possible to sleep on.

The lioness, when free from family cares, is prone to lie on her back, with her legs stretched up straight in the air and paws pendant. Her mate of masculine persuasion, when the excitement of the day is over, stretches himself out flatly on his side, with paws turned in, and tosses and twitches in his slumber a good deal like a dog.

Gorillas and chimpanzees sleep with their hands over their heads although they, too, follow the natural instinct of the entire monkey family, and seek a high perch.

Bears, who have no fear of man or beast, sleep in any position that pleases their fancy, and the same is true of wolves. Animals of a cunning or cowardly nature, however, are always on the alert, even when asleep. A seal sleeps like a human being. It stretches out at full length and enters dreamland on its back, stomach or side. Once in a while a seal will sit up, with its head bent down on its chest, fast asleep in the water, with his ears under as is his custom in his native state so that he may hear the approach of an enemy, sound travelling with great distinctness under water.

Elephants sleep upright, like a markable menagerie exhibit.

Rescued by his pal he is hidden and apparently deserted since the men have kidnapped the boy.

Rinty escapes, and rushing to his master, frees him in time to get to the track as the big racing meet starts. But this is only the beginning! Rinty outclasses even himself in the astonishing way by which he contrives to make the race a victory! You'll root for Rinty as never before!

LEGAL NOTICES

ORDINANCE NO. 15

AN ORDINANCE FIXING THE AMOUNT OF MONEY NECESSARY TO BE RAISED BY TAXATION AND LEVYING A TAX UPON ALL PROPERTY WITHIN THE EAST BAY MUNICIPAL UTILITY DISTRICT.

Introduced by Mr. George Stringham. Seconded by Director Boyer. Be it enacted by the Board of Directors of the East Bay Municipal Utility District,

See 1. In the opinion of the Board of Directors of the District the amount of tax will not be sufficient to pay the principal or interest on the bonded debt of the District as it becomes due or to carry out the objects and purposes of the District in that the amount of money necessary to be raised thereby by taxation is the sum of $1,657,273.14.

See 2. That said Board of Directors having heretofore elected to avail itself of the services of the Assessors of the Counties of Alameda and Contra Costa, respectively, and to take such assessments as the basis for District taxation and to have its taxes computed by the county officials of each county.

Now, therefore, pursuant to law, the said Board of Directors does fix the rate of taxation for the East Bay Municipal Utility District for the year beginning July 1, 1928, and ending June 30, 1929, at 41 cents upon each hundred dollars of the valuation of property as assessed by the said county assessors of Alameda and Contra Costa counties respectively.

If they can see the object they do not get frightened easily, but if it is something weird sounding and out of sight, they need the reassuring voice of their keeper. With the elephant the voice is everything. They have the same feeling for a friendly sincere voice that a natural musician has for the sound of a musical voice.

The menagerie department of the Sells Floto circus has been greatly enlarged this season and now contains 53 kinds of wild animals, in addition to 5 herd of elephants, 40 camels. It is considered the largest and most complete traveling zoo in the world.

Doors are opened one hour before the big show starts to enable visitors to inspect this remarkable menagerie exhibit.

REGIE DENNY COMEDY COMES TO CALIFORNIA

"Good Morning Judge," the funniest picture Reginald Denny has ever made, has been booked by the California theatre for tomorrow.

Denny has long been the screen's comedian par excellence, but in this Universal picture he reaches the pinnacle of his mirth-provoking qualities.

Reginald Denny as a wealthy young man who confesses to the most dastardly crimes so that he may remain in a charity mission for homeless children and be near the girl he loves. And all the time the girl is trying to reform him.

The star breezes through the role in his usual laugh-winning manner. Audiences have laughed aplenty at him in former pictures, but "Good Morning, Judge," will arouse a regular cyclone of riotous hilarity.

The girl is played by blonde Mary Nolan, Miss Nolan, an importation from Germany, is already recognized as one of the most beautiful and capable heroines in Hollywood.

An additional selection of players are in the supporting cast, Dorothy Gulliver, a wampus Star of 1928, plays the sister of Denny, Miss Gulliver is favorably known as the leading lady of the famous "Collegeans" series.

Other comedians who walk alone stir up many a gigue, portrays an old bum, Full Moon, and Sailor Sharkey play crooks. William Davidson, William Worthington, and Charles Coleman are also in the cast.

This delightful screen comedy will be on the same program with the Nat Holt Comedians. Other short reels are to round out the biggest presentation ever offered at the California.

SOVIET UNION TO SIGN PACT TO OUTLAW WAR

MOSCOW, Aug. 31.—(U.P.)—The Soviet union today agreed to sign the Briand-Kellogg treaty to outlaw war.

The decision of Moscow has been looked forward to with some apprehension, and fears of European statesmen were not groundless. In a note accompanying the adherence of Russia to the pact, Soviet authorities voiced scathing criticism of the anti-war declaration and of reservations which England, France and other powers insisted upon before they would sign.

It had been freely admitted by certain diplomats that the treaty would not be successful unless the Soviet adhered. While today's decision may alleviate fear that the peace pact would not be successfully concluded, the criticism virtually is certain to cause wide comment.

Russia, frustrated in her desire to be an original signatory, was invited to adhere a few hours after the signing of the treaty in Paris. France advanced the invitation.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 31.—(U.P.)—Two sisters, separated for half a century, have been reunited here.

They are Mrs. F. A. Alley, of Oklahoma City, and Mrs. Robert W. Mellon, of Lineville, Ala. Neither had seen the other for 50 years.

A fortune teller was responsible for the sister's meeting again, Mrs. Alley, 80, said.

"I happened to be down town one night with my son," she said.

WOMAN JUDGE SAYS MODERN YOUTH OKEH

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Aug. 22.—(U.P.)—Youth may be irresponsible and at times a bit wild, but the dangerous age is nearer 40 than than 14, in the opinion of Judge Camille Kelley, second woman juvenile judge in America and the first in the South.

Judge Kelley, who in her seven years as judge of the Memphis juvenile court has heard thousands of cases, believes the youth of today are better disciplined and more lawful than ever before.

"We talk about youth being fast, but parents are miles ahead of their children," Judge Kelley said. "We censure children, but it is the fast, middle-aged group that should be censured and pitied.

"There is nothing so pitiful as the man or woman whose pent-up childhood energy breaks out in a new place at 40," she said. "They have learned the paths of crime that the younger generation never dreamed existed."

"Petting parties, drinking and automobile rides into country lanes are not responsible for one tenth as much juvenile delinquency as the lack of proper home influence."

"Modern youth has been labeled 'wild,' and they have come to believe they really are wild. Why, the dear children are mere amateurs compared to their elders," Judge Kelley said.

"A new world has been opened to the youth of today. Most girls know more at 17 than their mothers did at 27. Youth is going through a period of adjustments and readjustments to modern conditions."

"Youth doesn't just naturally fall into the paths of crime or usefulness. It is led and influenced and if the parents leave that important duty to the back-to-the playmates of their children, the blame is theirs, not the child's."

"It may be an old story, but the greatest source of delinquency is the broken home and the separated mother and father. If parents thought less of their own selfish desires and more of the happiness of their boys and girls there would be fewer juvenile delinquents," Judge Kelley said.

"We passed by a fortune teller's place, and my boy told me to go in and ask if my sister was living. I had been trying to learn something about her for a long time, and had just about given up hope when I went in to the palmist."

"She told me that I had relatives in Atlanta, and for me to write the postmaster."

"I did. He located a nephew of mine, and the nephew wrote me and told about his sister living in Lineville."

"You cannot know my joy when I heard the news. I wrote to her and we planted this meeting here."

"It was almost like hearing from the dead," Mrs. Mellon, 69, said.

"I had no idea that she was alive but for the past several years I felt that Sue was possibly living. When the sisters parted 50 years ago Mrs. Wilson was single and Mrs. Alley had been married a few years."

Since that time both have become mothers. Mrs. Alley is the mother of 16 children 9 of them living. Mrs. Mellon is the mother of five. Both sisters are widows.

Father Hangs For Killing Of Daughter

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Aug. 31.—(U.P.)—The state of Washington took the life of Wallace C. "Bob" Gaines today in retribution for the murder of his daughter, Sylvia, two years ago.

Gaines went to his death on the gallows of the state penitentiary here at 4:00 a.m. He walked with unfaltering steps to the death chamber and calmly waited as guards adjusted the noose.

"Get this over as quickly as you can," Gaines said to prison officials. They were his last words.

PRINCE CAROL SEES BELGIUM AS HIS HAVEN

PARIS—Aug. 22.—(U.P.)—European diplomacy is following closely the movements of Prince Carol of Roumania, and wondering if he will select Switzerland and Holland for years the abode of political and religious exiles, France, as his future home.

During the summer months the Prince, now legally separated from the mother of King Michael, has spent most of his time at Honfleur and his new villa at Coq-sur-Mer, near Ostend, in Belgium. His difficulties with the British government, it is considered, have made his refuge in England virtually impossible. The Belgians have treated him with great respect, his numerous difficulties having evoked a traditional sympathy, and it is not unlikely that the father of the King of the Roumanians will find a permanent abode there.

This will not be opposed by the chancelleries of the rest of Europe. Since the war, there has been no country as free from intrigue as Belgium. Not only are the national police averse to such emergencies, but the special officers of other countries are constantly on the alert, recalling their deficiencies before 1914.

Switzerland, which received the former nobility of Austria, Hungary, Greece and the refugees of Italy has so far shown no desire to welcome Prince Carol. He is always able to obtain a Swiss visa for his royal passport, but no enthusiasm is shown when he arrives in either Geneva or Berne.

As for Holland, one undesired monarch is all that the Hague cares to be worried about for the time being, and it is said that a few weeks at Scheveningen was officially opposed.

OAKLAND TECH DOWNS LOCALS BY SCORE 16-6

Outweighed by several pounds to the man, gridiron warriors of Richmond high school fought a valiant battle against their larger opponents from Oakland Tech yesterday on the local field and came out on the small end of 16 to 6 count.

Tech's line, resembling a stone wall, spelled defeat for the Blue and Red, which resorted to an aerial attack to score a lone touchdown in the third quarter.

Tech's markers were the result of two touchdowns and two safeties, one of each coming in the first and fourth quarters.

Fully 2000 students from both schools and a large gathering of townspeople were on hand for the contest.

Tech drew first blood in the initial quarter when Richmond after blocking Oakland's offensive on the four yard mark, kicked from behind its own goal, the officials ruling the kicker was standing out of bounds. Two points went up on the scoreboard for Tech.

Line smashes and end runs through and around the smaller and weaker Richmond toward wall, brought Tech its initial touchdown. The try for goal was blocked and the count stood 8 to 0 at the close of the first quarter.

Coch Ivan Hill's charges threat ended to score in the second period when they launched an overhead attack that was halted by Oakland on its own seven yard mark.

Two long passes brought the ball to Tech's six yard line in the third period and Richmond was in position to score, a position which they took full advantage of when Joe Williams pulled a quarterback sneak and scored from the six yard line. Richmond tried to convert an end run but failed.

A Richmond fumble on its own 40 yard mark proved costly in the final period. Oakland Tech backfield men ripped and slashed the local line for its second touchdown. The try for goal was blocked and the count stood 16 to 6.

While Hill's men appeared woefully weak at smashing the line, they gained much yardage by a passing attack, which appears to be the main weapon they will use in coming contests. Five passes were completed out of seven attempts.

Jack Scott Is Back Again

Veteran Hurler Helps Giants In Drive For Flag

By GEDRGE KIRKSEY

Jim Scott is back with the New York Giants for the third time. Needing a veteran right-handed pitcher for the final National League pennant drive, John J. McGraw sent Bill Walker, young southpaw, to the Toledo American Association club for Scott.

McGraw did the same thing six years ago, and Scott helped the Giants win the National League pennant and beat the New York Yankees in the 1922 world series.

The Giants were fighting for the pennant late in 1922 when the pitching staff was weakened by the dismissal of Pali Douglass, Scott, who was cast adrift by the Cincinnati Reds because he had lost his arm, walked into the Giants' clubhouse and asked McGraw for a job.

"My arm isn't gone," Scott said. "Give me a chance and I'll prove it."

Scott got the chance and he won four out of five games helping the Giants ride into the world series. After Scott's brilliant pitching late in the season McGraw announced he would start him in one of the world series games. The announcement caused a furor among Giant fans who figured Scott's fast ball would be murdered by the Yankees.

McGraw did start Scott, as he promised, in the third game of the world series, October 6, 1922. Scott shut out the Yankees, allowing only four hits. He beat Waite Hoyt, Yankee ace, pitching the best game of the series.

The next season Scott deteriorated and the Giants sent him back to Toledo. Scott had a great season in 1924 and at the end of the season McGraw decided to bring him back to the Giants again but Scott couldn't regain his form and wasn't much good to the club and McGraw traded him to Philadelphia in the winter of 1925-26 for Jimmy Ring. The trade didn't help either club and the Giants sent Ring to St. Louis and the Phillies sent Scott back to Toledo again.

The California motorist who drove 30 miles before he discovered his wife missing from the back seat certainly put a powerful argument in the mouths of ladies who have been accused of driving from that position.

TUNNEY CHATS WITH WALES ON SPORTS, LOVE

LONDON, Aug. 31 (UPI)—The world's greatest fighter's conversation with England's most enthusiastic sportsman afforded an interesting tidbit for London's sports circles tonight.

Gene Tunney, whose fist is famous in America and whose exhibition is acclaimed in Britain, spent half an hour with the prince of Wales this morning and left St. James palace with enthusiastic and rather excited comment.

William Powell of New York accompanied Tunney to the Palace. Tunney chatted with Wales about boxing, golf, international politics and even about Miss Polly Lauder, via Tunney's fiancée.

Tunney confided to friends that he was greatly impressed by the prince's extensive knowledge of current events, having the previous idea that royalty kept somewhat in the background. The prince asked about Miss Lauder and wanted to know all about Tunney's fighting career.

The slender wicket faced heir to the throne of Great Britain found the mighty-muscled champion an interesting conversationalist and they talked on and on until the prince was forced to return to final preparations for his east African tour, which begins next week.

COLORED BOXER SCORES K.O. AT CERRITO FIGHT

Ted Jernigan, negro scrapper of Oakland, knocked out Ted Snyder of Sacramento in the second round of a scheduled eight-round main event at El Cerrito last night.

Punches flew from every angle as the fighters started the opening round. First Jernigan went down under a volley of blows and then Jernigan sent Snyder to the mat with a barrage of punches.

They were mixing it at a furious pace in the second frame when Snyder went down to the canvas for keeps.

A large crowd was on hand to witness a fairly good card.

In the semi-windup, Mickey Brown of Richmond was awarded a knockout in the fourth round when Eddie Haddon's manager threw in the towel. Haddon was no match for the local wiper.

Art Francis and Teddy Rockaway fought a six-round draw; Pete Tripodes knocked out Mickey Davis in the first round of a scheduled four-round bout; Tommy Pruitt won a decision over Morris Green in the curtain raiser.

It was announced that Frankie Klick, a top notch fighter who has appeared in San Francisco rings, will battle Sidnie White on Promoter Rossi's next card.

Senators Lose Another Contest

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31 (UPI)—The wedding of Gene Tunney and Polly Lauder may not take place until a successor is named for the heavyweight title which Tunney faces the Pan American aggregation in a league game.

DETROIT, Aug. 31 (UPI)—Flier Charles, Belgian heavyweight champion, who lost a 10-round decision to Otto Von Porat two weeks ago, was knocked out for the first time in this country, tonight by George Godfrey, Philadelphia's hero.

The K. O. came after one minute and 48 seconds of fighting in the second round after Charles had gone to the mat three times. Godfrey led from the start, rushing Charles and punishing him severely. He scored a terrific left to Charles' kidney in the first in a clinch. Charles refused to stay down after his first knock down and got up as soon as he was able despite appeals from his manager to "stay down and rest."

STROPPING IS ESSENTIAL TO THE PERFECT SHAVE

are all Barbers CRAZY?

Is stropping a playful gesture to amuse you?

Or has the new Valet AutoStrop Razor proved that there is a fundamental reason for stropping?

YES, all barbers are insane . . . so are other millions of men . . . if stropping a blade to sharpen it is useless.

But you know that every barber throughout the entire world knows that he must stroop before he shaves. An unstropped edge is like a row of needles. It pulls and tears the skin.

There is one razor and only one which automatically insures a stropped blade for every shave—The Valet AutoStrop Razor.

Dickens Seen As Vulgarian In New Novel

NEW YORK, Aug. 31 (UPI)—A highly unflattering view of Chas. Dickens the man has been taken by C. E. Bechhofer Roberts, English journalist, in a novel, "This Side Idoltry," published today.

Roberts claims that Dickens was on paper only a foe of rant hypocrisy and hubris. As a matter of fact, he continues, "the indomitable Boz" bullied his wife and his publishers, used his friends and family mercilessly as material for books, lived in flatly and was, in short, a vain vulgar man.

The customarily accepted theory that Mrs. Dickens was insane is rejected by Roberts who charges that Dickens himself launched this theory after Kate went into constant child-birth, angered by being urged to economy while her husband lavished gifts on favorite and disrespected his circle of worldlings, headed by her own sister, left him.

Dickens' lovers over the world may find at this interpretation of an idol, but Roberts claims his facts are indisputably correct. Much of his important but previously unknown material was secured through surviving friends of Dickens and from the descendants of Boz' godfather.

TUITION TO BERKELEY IS VOTED DOWN

(Continued from Page 1) and social life. All our dealings are with Berkeley people. We feel that the boundaries are artificial since none of our associations are with Richmond people. The schooling costs are merely a matter of bookkeeping. Transportation is another cause for wishing to have our children attend Berkeley schools. We do not feel that it is fair to the children to force them to spend an hour or two a day travelling in a bus when they could spend that time in outdoor exercise or attending to their chores. Supervision of the children in the busses is not what it could be. The driver must keep his attention on the road and cannot supervise the children.

Kleibergen stated that "temporary" school facilities had been provided for the children "on strike" by the hiring of a private teacher and that should no agreement between Berkeley and Richmond be reached providing for the instruction of the boys and girls in the Berkeley schools, the residents of Kensington Park might consider the erection of a school of their own.

The members of the Richmond school board in considering the objections to the bus transportation, felt that better transportation has been furnished to the children of the Kensington Park district than to many within the city limits of Richmond and with our cost.

Superintendent of Schools Helmstated in an interview yesterday that due to the decision of the school board, further consideration would be up to County Superintendent of Schools W. H. Hanlon and D. Martin, superintendent of schools for Alameda county. Superintendent Hanlon declared that he has not yet been approached in the matter by the residents of Kensington Park, who have already taken up the matter with William J. Cooper, state superintendent of public instruction.

No action has as yet been taken by Superintendent Cooper who informed the residents that he will be in Berkeley on September 11 and will hear the controversy at that time.

Children of Kensington Park residents not concerned in the "strike" and attending Richmond schools have voiced their satisfaction with transportation and educational facilities in the local schools.

ROSA PONSELLI, Metropolitan Opera soprano, is truly a golf ball on the course at Lake Placid. The blow stuns her into unconsciousness, but her first thought upon recovering is her concert for the following day. Real artists cannot be stunned into oblivion. Their feverish intensity overcomes every pain. Sometimes a thrust to the heart makes the songbird sing louder and sweeter.

A BOOK OF SHORT STORIES and poems by the late Catherine Wells, wife of H. G. Wells, has just come off the press. But the work of the woman is thrown into shadow by the brilliance of a preface written by her husband just as her literary light during her life was dimmed by her husband's greatest luster. That is the unfortunate result of the mating of two great minds. One must subject itself to the other, as a rule, often to the point of being totally eclipsed. Fortunately there are cases of people of equal genius who wed and go along on their individual paths to fame and glory. Posthumous recognition has come to Mrs. Wells. It does not mean much to her now.

the world's greatest living aviator, is about to go through the most trying period of his life. People are erecting monuments in his honor and converting commemorative parks in his name. The spot he dropped off will be graced by a bronze shaft. The properties around the field of this historical enterprise already have been turned over to Joseph P. Day, a New York real estate wizard, for development. AMERICAN BUSINESS ENTERPRISE IS QUICK TO RECOGNIZE WORLD HEROISM. If Lindbergh reads Greek history he may remember the story of the great Greek philosopher of his time who was asked, while he walked through the market place, why a monument HAD NOT BEEN put up in his name. He replied: "It is better for people to ask WHY THERE IS NO MONUMENT in my name than to ask why one HAS been put up." As Lindbergh grows older he will appreciate this.

HERD OF HORSES READY TO START DEATH JOURNEY

EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 31—(UPI)—Wild horses on the plains of the southwest are in a great death march as a result of the increase in beef prices.

Range grass is not plentiful enough to feed both the cattle herd and the thousands of unproductive wild horses that roam the plains. Ranchers have declared that the wild horses must die, probably in reduction plants.

By a curious irony of fate, the only route by which many of the doomed animals can be driven to the plant at El Paso, is over the desolate 100-mile highway from Hillsboro, N. M., that first tortured Spaniards three years ago named "El Jornado del Muerto"—the Journey of Death!

For the bromptail ponies and the wild burros, the barren trail is truly a journey of death. Water is scarce on the trail and lock-jaw breaks out in some of the herds. For the animals who escape death on the trail, there are the bullets of the slaughter house executioner.

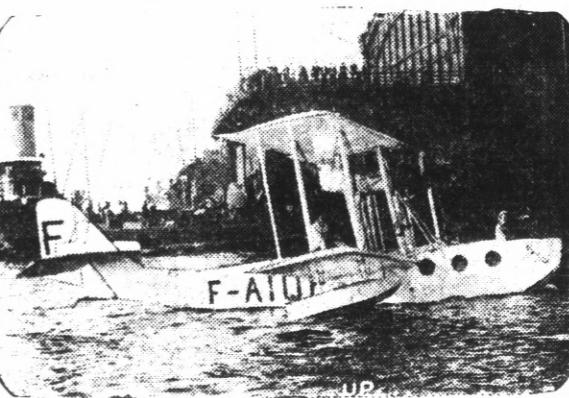

There have been wild horses in west Texas and New Mexico ever since animals escaped from the camps of Cortez and De Soto in the 16th century. Little disturbed by man, and in recent years constantly augmented by strays from ranches and cavalry posts, immense herds formed.

Once in a while cattlemen round up a few and break them for ranch purposes. In 1918 several thousand were corralled and sent to France to drag artillery pieces for the Allies. Only recently have the herds been considered a menace.

The doom of the wild horse was sealed with the record price of beef in 1927. As the result of the barring of animals from Argentina on account of the foot and mouth disease, American beef commanded the highest price since the World War. For the first time in years there was an incentive for the cattlemen to raise maximum herds. He is doing that this year and the wild horse must make room.

Reduction plants pay from $2 to $10 for the horses, depending on the condition of the hide. Richmond Laundry Co. is operated by J. Toyota, 8 21 4t.

Ship to Shore Service Opened

THE AMPHIBIAN PLANE which was capsized from the liner Le France, while the ship was still 500 miles at sea, is shown in this picture. The plane, piloted by Commander Louis Demougeot, carried mail into New York far ahead of the liner Le France. In the future it is planned to carry passengers as well as mail.

All departments of the new store will be opened for business this morning at 9 o'clock and preparations have been made to handle a large crowd eager to purchase articles viewed yesterday.

I NEVER DONE WRONG, MOVIE ACTOR ASSERTS

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 31—(UPI)—"I'm just a pure cowboy, and I never done wrong," Tom Mix told the court today and it was so ordered.

Judge Leonard Wilson listened to the plaintive story of the "rancher" and then found that he was not guilty of having battered Will Morrissey and his wife Midgie Miller, in the historic Sunday morning clash during which the entertainer and his little woman received numerous bruises including a black eye for her.

Tom was asked to give his occupation.

"Rancher," he replied—nothing more.

The courtroom was filled with actors and actresses and other celebrities of Hollywood, who heard their professions so slighted.

"Drink? I haven't had drink of hard liquor for twelve years," Mix told the judge. It was reported that there had been considerable to drink at the party given by George Beban, which ended with Mix and Morrissey and Midgie Miller going round and round on the turf.

"Curse, I don't use nasty language," the cowman declared.

Morrissey asserted that Mix had cursed fluently before the blows started.

Miss Miller was a witness.
